Adjutant General on Army Organization.

NUCH CRITICISED STAFF.

General Corbin Says to Increase the Number of Line Officers Is Best Solution of the Difficulty-The Plans For New Organisation.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.-Adjutant General H. C. Corbin has made his annual report to the secretary of war. It contains much of a statistical nature about the armies of the United States, including the regular and volunteer branches. General Corbin shows that at the breaking out of the war the regular army consisted of 2,143 officers and 26,-040 enlisted men. He refers to the legislation for increasing the strength of the regular army, also to proposed legislation submitted to the last congress, but which was not enacted. Under the war legislation the regular army was in-creased until it amounted to 2,332 officers and 56,365 enlisted men, which included 5,365 men of the hospital corps. Regular army officers to the number of 387 were nominated for and confirmed in different grades of the volunteer Discussing the volunteer army, General Corbin shows the legislation regarding it and gives in detail the different organizations called out from the various states and territories. The strength of the volunteer army at its highest point, which was during the month of August, was 8,785 officers and 207,244 enlisted men. The aggregate strength of the regular and volunteer armies was 11,108 officers and 263,609 enlisted men.

General Corbin says that the surrender of the Spanish troops in Porto Rico no less than the successful operations of our troops in the Philippines led to the determination to muster out 100,000

Continuing, he says: "Since the signng of the protocol the officers and men of the volunteer regiments have remained at their posts of duty, in most cases at great personal sacrifice. That they have done this cheerfully and without complaint makes it all the more deairable that a speedy increase of the regular army be provided for in order that the volunteers may be released from further service and be allowed to return to their peaceful vocations."

As to the staff, General Corbin says: "Much has been said of late concerning the organization of the several staff departments. If, as recommended, additional officers are given the line of the army, so as to give plenty of trained officers for staff duty in time of war, the main objection will have been met, and it is doubtful if, under the conditions peculiar to this government, a general reorganization of the staff or the adoption of a new system should be entered upon." The character of e mented on in the following: "In assembling the regiments of the regular army at the beginning of the war with Spain the character of the enlisted men arrested attention. A distinguished officer visiting army corps at Tampa remarked, 'Every man looked fit to command.

and Santiago gave abundant evidence, R. N., and the Rev. J. O. Wilson. that his good opinion was well placed. The officers and men by their valorous deeds and gallant conduct met the high expectations of the country."

The number killed and wounded in all campaigns is as follows: Officers killed, 23; enlisted men killed, 257; officers wounded, 113; enlisted men wounded, 1,464. The total deaths from wounds and disease up to Oct. 3 were 107 officers and 2,803 enlisted men.

The recruiting service in the regular, May, and volunteer armies is referred to. Lack of officers in the regular army is specifically pointed out in a number of instances

General Corbin has the following to say concerning the increase of the regular army:

"The organization of the cavalry, ar tillery and infantry regiments has stood the test in battle and received the approval of those in command, so that the increase of the line of the army, demanded by our new possessions should be by the addition of the necessary number of regiments organized as are those now in the service. The number of officers should be increased by one lieutenant to each troop, battery and company. This would enable the department to meet the demand for various details required by law and yet leave the troops with the necessary number of officers for their proper discipline and instruction and in war allow the appointment of sufficient generals and general staff officers without destroying the efficiency of the army, as threatened by the recent experiences of the department. The number of trained officers as herein provided for at the beginning of the present war would have saved lives and treasure, to say nothing of the increased efficiency of the service. At the beginning of the present war some 400 officers were ap pointed to the staff and volunteer regi ments. With these and for aids to the generals and other duty absolutely required for the conduct of the war absent from their commands, the regiments were sent to battle with scarcely more than one officer to a company. It is difficult now, with the sick and wounded, for the department to get on. officer to the company, and too frequently there have been two companion. with but one officer. The increase proposed would in no way give a greater number of officers than required.

"By the date fixed for the resembling of congress the document ail, undoyour directions, be prepared to so will a bill providing for the inc, and of the army. "Officers serving to the Wast Indian and the Philippines n !! as a rule be separated from their families and their recommended that all officers below the rank of major while so serving shall have the pay and allowance of the next higher grade.

"The requirements of probable service in Cuba and elsewhere call for the increase of general officers in the permanent establishments. There should at least be an increase of two major generals and four brigadier generals. Provision for the grade of lieutenant general is called for by the best interests of the public service."

General Corbin recommends that the men of the national guard who entered the volunteer army be allowed to return and be readmitted to their state organisations.

Other features of the report refer to the post graduate school of the army, post lyceums, post schools, the personnel of the adjutant general's department, the bureau of military information and military attaches. Officers who are sent as military attaches are recommended to be given the rank of lieutenant colonel and major while on such duty. He also recommends that the pay of noncommissioned officers be increased and that there be a reorganization of army bands which will secure the better class of musicians.

DINNER TO MILES. Brilliant Affair at the Waldorf-Astoria Last Night.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.-Major General Nelson A. Miles was the guest of honor at the Waldorf Astoria last evening at a banquet tendered him by more than 700 of the most prominent citizens of New York. The affair was remarkable for its brilliancy and for the character of the men who assembled at the tables. The assembly included eminent men of nearly every profession, soldiers and saflors, active and retired; lawyers, bankers, brokers, physicians, railroad presidents and clergymen. Indeed, rarely have so many men whose names are known over the country been gathered at any social function in this city. The big hall looked much as it did last winter at the dinner given for President McKinley by the Manufacturers' assocation. As then, too, the guests overflowed from the hall proper into the corridors and the antercoms.

At the long guests' table Joseph H. Choate presided. At his right sat General Miles, the guest of honor. Upon his left, as the chief representative of the navy, sat Rear Admiral Henry Erben, retired. Rear Admiral Schley was to have been present, but was called to Washington in the afternoon. General Shafter also was absent on account of illness, but among those at the guests' table were four governors, one acting governor and a governor elect, Governor Lowndes of Maryland, Governor Wolcott of Massachusetts, Governor Hastings of Pennsylvania, Governor Bushnell of Ohio, Acting Governor Watkins of New Jersey and Governor Elect Roosevelt of New York. The staff of each governor attended him and enlivened the scene with the picturesqueness of their uniforms. Others at the guests' table included the Rev. Dr. G. ator William J. Sewell, Chauncey M. Depew, Roswell P. Flower, Justice Charles H. Van Brunt, the Rev. Dr. Henry van Dyke, Seth Low, Judge William J. Wallace, Major General O. O. Howard, Major General Daniel E. #### THIRTEEN MURDERERS HANGED Africans Executed For Killing American Missionaries.

LONDON, Nov. 12 .- The mails from Sterra Leone, West Africa, bring news of the hanging at Kwellu of 13 murderers of American missionaries, members of the United Brotherhood of Christ, in the Sherbro district of Sierra Leone last

The massacre of the missionaries referred to in the foregoing dispatch grew out of the dissatisfaction of the natives with the local but tax. A number of chiefs rebelled, and the insurrection: spread through the Sherbro district, where the headquarters of the missionaries of the United Brotherhood of Christ were located. The insurgents burned the mission houses and murdered a number of the missionaries, among them Mr. and Mrs. Cain and the Misses Archer, Hatfield and Schenck, Several of the missipnaries-Mr. and Mrs. Burtner, Mr. and Mrs. Minshall and the Misses Muller and Ward-succeeded, after terrible experiences, in reaching Free Town, capital of the British colony of Sierra Leone

A British expedition was subsequently dispatched to the scene of the uprising, and the cremated bodies of several of the missionaries were subsequently recovered. Native chiefs to the number of 100 were arrested by the British authorities and placed on trial for murder. It is probable that the 13 already executed were the principal promoters of the rebellion.

WILLIAM'S AMBITION

Visit to Spain an Object of Suspicion.

THE LION AND EAGLE SIDE BY SIDE

London Chronicle Says England Will Stand by America on the Philippine Question-Kniser May Be After Carolines.

LONDON, Nov. 12.-The weekly papers, while they see in Tuesday's elections improved prospects of currency legislation, regret that the Republican success was not more pronounced. They express a fear that the results will encourage continental powers to increase hostility toward the annexation of the Philippines by the United States, although they doubt that there will be any more serious intervention than acrimonious protests, "as the powers are aware that Great Britain would not allow the United States to be overborne by a hostile coalition."

The Spectator says:

"The statesmen of the continent universally fear the advent of the United States in European politics. They cannot rid their heads of the idea that, if they stand together as when they coerced Japan, America will similarly

"But their representations at Washington are likely to irritate greatly the national pride of the Americans, leading to a universal support of President McKinley in a reply which, however moderate in tone, will in effect be a clear defiance. -The excessive fear felt of an Anglo-Saxon alliance is shown by the fact that the whole continent sees in Lord Salisbury's Guildhall references to America all manner of menaces." The Daily Chronicle says:

"Emperor William's visit to Spain is probably connected with Germany's ambition to secure the Carolines, seeing that she cannot get a coaling station in the Philippines, but there is not the remotest chance of war over the latter. The fact that the British lion and the American eagle will be on the same side is the best guarantee of peace." The Standard, which expresses suspicion as to the kaiser's intentions, "Possibly Spain is mad enough to try to renew the war, but European peace will not be further disturbed." The Paris correspondent of The Times, summarizing the points of America's reply, says: "Spain's protest prior to the protocol against being deprived of the Philippines was in effect a recognition of America's right to annex them. Moreover, Spain would be compelled to make great sacrifices in order to suppress the Philippine insurrection. "As for the holders of Cuban bonds, they must understand that the mortgage is worthless, inasmuch as Spain has lost the territory mortgaged. Spain's reasoning were admitted nation could come to the rescue of an oppressed people, since the liberating nation would be obliged to pay the

TO SEIZE TERESA.

Schamans Said to Have Claimed Meg sa a Derelict. NASSAU, N. P., Nov. 12.—The British admiralty authorities here are going to take possession of the Maria Teresa as & derelict.

The American consul has protested against this course, claiming everything less the salvage.

The steamer Antillia has left here for Cat island, with customs officers and police on board. Opinions differ as to the chance of saving the cruiser. Although she has been aground since Thursday, the Maria Teresa rests in an easy position, and the weather is moderate. Wreckers who have arrived here have brought with them stores from the stranded vessel off Cat island which establishes beyond a doubt that she is the Infanta Maria Teresa As the vessel is looked upon as being a derelict, the wreckers claim the right to selze the stores which can be saved. They report that the water is up to her between decks, that she has a list te starboard, which side is damaged, and that she is dismasted.

The vessel lies between two reefs, on a smooth bottom and has her anchor

TITLE TO TERESA.

Our Claim Held to Be Good-Ship May Not Be Worth Saving.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The offcials at the navy department are interested in the news from Nassau identifying clearly the steamship lying of Cat island as the Maria Teresa. The legal status of the vessel has been considered cursorily, and in the opinion of the department the title of the United States to her is unimpaired, notwithstanding the fact that it was necessary to abandon her for a time. There may be some question involved as to the payment of salvage to the Bahama fishermen, but that depends in a large measure on what they have done. If they have simply been looting the vessel, then not only are they not entitled to salvage, but the goods stolen may be recovered. On the other hand, if it was the fishermen who anchored the ship in smooth water and if they made any endeavor to bring her in probably they will have a good claim for salvage. The vessel, however, is not subject to detention on this account, international law exempting national vessels from seizure on any score in time of peace. In such case the salvors might, after allowing the vessel to proceed, present their claim to the government of the United States through the diplomatic representatives of the British govern-

From the account received it is feared that the damage to the vessel sustained through the storm and the probable pounding upon the coral reefs outlying Cat island added to the wounds received by the ship in action when she was sunk originally are sufficient to render her entirely valueless. Nothing but an expert's examination can determine this point, but as the Merritt experts are already on their way to Cat island that question will soon be de-

DREYFUS LOSES HOPE. Thinks He is Dying and Won't Write Any More Letters.

PARIS, Nov. 12.-Mme. Dreyfus, it is said, applied at the office of the colonial minister yesterday for permission to send her husband some warm clothing for his return home. Her request was refused on the ground that the government would do whatever was necessary.

At the same time the authorities read to her a letter from her husband to the effect that, having for five months addressed appeals for revision to General de Boisdeffre without getting any reply and being wearied and exhausted by his useless appeals, he would write no more to his family or to anybody. He described himself as ill and dying and bequeathed to the "generosity of my country the care of rehabilitating my memory."

Mme. Dreyfus then asked permission to telegraph to her husband the decision of the court cassation. This request also was refused.

THE SOLDIER VOTE.

Final Canvass Will Not Be Made Untll Next Month. ALBANY, Nov. 12 .-- Owing to the delay that is expected by the secretary of state in receiving the votes of this state's volunteers who are stationed at distant posts the present indications are that the final canvass of election returns in the many election districts of the state will not be made until the first or second week in December.

The return of the First regiment at Honolulu will be principally responsible for this long delay. It is an erroneous opinion that has been formed to the effect that the soldiers' ballots will be canvassed by the secretary of state as soon as they have been received by him. ### TOLBERT'S VERSION.

Candidate For Congress or Carolina Political Riots.

APPEALS TO PRESIDENT M'KINLEY

Pederal Government Looking Inte the Affair-Attorney General Says 'Tolbert's Father, Collector at Charleston, Will Be Protected.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.-R. R. Tolsert. Republican candidate for congress a .the Abbeville (S. C.) district and the brother of T. P. Tolbert, who was Milled in the political riots at Phoenix, a. C., on Tuesday, has come to Washington to lay his case before the federal government.

Mr. Tolbert says that the true story of the rioting has not been given. The facts are, he said, as follows:

"I was nominated for congress by the Republicans of my district. For the surpose of making a contest before the house my brother, T. P. Tolbert, agreed to be present at the polling place at Phoenix for the purpose of watching the affidavits of colored men who were rejected as voters because of their inability to comply with the requirements of the constitution.

"My brother took no part in the mangement of the polling place, which was the hands of the Democrats. He simply sat on the plazza of Mr. Lake's house and witnessed the affidavits given him, depositing these affidavits in a box prepared for the purpose.

"Mr. Etheridge, the white man who was killed, was an election manager at a precinct two miles away. He left his own precinct and with a party of men went to Phoenix. He walked up with his party to where my brother was mitting at a table and deliberately kickof over the table and box in which were put the certificates. Then he asmulted my brother.

"In a short while the Democratic votwww who were in the same house rushed out and commenced shooting into the crowd. The negroes fied. My brother, who is probably dead by now, told me that Etheridge was killed by shots from his own friends.

'My brother did not have a weapon

Mr. Tolbert said that he was at Abbeville, 25 miles away from the shooting. His father, J. R. Tolbert, was at Verdry, another precinct. When the elder Tolbert learned of the riot, he started to the scene in his buggy, accompanied by a little 10-year-old sephew. Before he reached the scene be was met by a mob, which riddled his buggy with bullets and wounded him and the little boy a number of

Mr. Tolbert states that his brother maid that, so far as he could see, no shots were fired by the negroes at Phœ-

They fied as soon as the shooting commenced, leaving T. P. Tolbert as target for the mob to shoot at.

At a late hour yesterday Mr. Tolbert, secompanied by Solicitor General Richards of the department of justice, called at the White House and had an extended Interview with President McKinley. He related to the president the story of his experiences in South Carolina substantially as given above, entering into minute details of the trouble on election day. The president listened attentively to the recital, but gave no indication of what action, if any, might be taken. However, he requested Mr Tolbert to see the attorney general and make to him a full statement of the situation as he viewed it.

Returning to the department of jus-Mce. Mr Tolbert had an interview with Attorney General Griggs, who had just returned to the city from New Jersey At the conclusion of the interview the attorney general said he would have a conference with the president upon the matter as soon as possible, and it would then he determined what, if anything,

Last night Aftorney General Griggs spent some time with the president, but so far as could be ascertained no deeision of the question presented by Mr. Tolbert was reached.

The department of justice has taken steps to obtain official information bearing upon the trouble in South Carelina, and it is said to be entirely unlikely that in the absence of such information the president will take any action in the matter. In addition, however, to the effort of the department to secure definite and official information concerning Tuesday's rioting steps have been taken to afford ample protection to the elder Tolhert, who is collector of customs at the port of Charles ton It is said that as a government officer in the exercise of his individual rights and in the performance of his official duties the federal government will not permit him to be interfered with. A prominent official of the administration said last night

"Collector Tolbert's rights will be maintained, even though an effort be made under the guise of law to trench upon them "

The conclusion reached that the insects were guided by the sense of smell rather than by their sight seems conclusive.

MYSTERY OF TWO LAKES.

They Are Par Apart in Europe, Su Are Agitated by the Same Storme.

The Wetternsee in Sweden, like so many other lakes, has long enjoyed the local reputation of being a bottomless pit. The Swedish scientists have now destroyed the venerable legend, for in the measurement taken a few days age they have auccessfully demonatrated that the greatest depth of the lake is only 119 meters. There still remains, however, a series of mysteries which science must be content to leave unsolved-at least for a time. It is not only a legendary belief, but there is a quasi-scientific ground for the queer supposition that living creatures, animals and vegetable, can and do make journeys to and fro between the high northern lake of Wettern and the South German lake of Constance. This bold conclusion has been partly justified by the appearance of exactly the same fauna, and even of the same animal life, in the Swedish and the Swabian island seas.

It is even asserted that whenever there is a storm on the lake of Constance the lake of Wettern begins sympathetically to roll and swell, and that the southern lake is similarly moved by any agitation in the distant northern lake. The Kleine Zeitung soberly declares this sympathetic phenomenon to be a known fact, but considerately adds that we will have to wait some time for the rational explation of it.

deadly nightshade family.

Cinnamon is the inner bark of a tree of the laurel family. Cardamom seeds of excellent quality are grown in Germany. The ordinary red pepper has long been used as a medicine.

Cardamom is used in England and Holland as an adulterant of gin. The pepper plant flowers in June and the crop is gathered in January.

Four species of plants produce capneum or the red pepper of commerce.

The first cloves mentioned in Europe were brought from the east in 1521. The clove is a product of a tree belonging to the myrtle family and is a native of the Molucca islands. Caraway seeds are grown for the market in many parts of Europe and Sout.

The cinnamon tree grows to a height of 20 to 30 feet. It is believed to be a native of Ceylon.

TOSH BILLINGS' PHILOSOPHY.

A snob iz a private party who overates himself and underates others. The man who has no physikal courage haz but very little moral courage. The man who iz determined to wintz world to beat him. pecked hussband-when he is away from home.

A careless man in a family iz simply a noosance, but a shiffless and sluttish woman iz wuss than a blister. Luv iz a phenomenon; it kan't be defined nor controuled, and too often, like the wild rose, "it wastes its sweetness on the desert air."

We all ov us think, if we could live our lives over again, we should make fewer blunders. This probably ain't so, we should only make different ones.

CITY'S MUDDLED FINANCES DISCUSSED BY MAYOR MANCE IN

MESSAGE TO THE COUNCIL.

Present Council Nos Kept Well Within This Year's Appropriations, but Tremsury is Almost Smyry- Vault Hests With Former Councils Which Spent Too which Money-Part of Beard of Education appropriation and the Water Frontage Tox stell Back By Last Tear's Council and Left for This Contect to Pay-The Mayer's Recommenda i form

A special meeting of the Common Council was held Friday night, to receive a communication from the Mayor. President Tierney and Aldermen Ailen, Lawrence, Owen, Gavin and Waldorf were present. The Mayor, who was suffering from a severe hoarseness, read the following:

To the Members of the Common Council: GENTLEMEN:-There is a clause in the sharter of our city, which reads as tol-lows: "It shall be the right and the duty of the Mayor to communicate to the Common Council, at least once e year, a general statement of the financies as he shall deem exp dient."

I have called you together, to-night, in special session, to communicate to you this message, my second during this fiscal year. It relates wholly to the finances of the city, finances asyon found them, finances as they are at present and finances as they should be. I have been aware some little time that it would be necessary for me to call this session so that I might acquaint you with the conditions as they are and recommend to you a solution of the financial problem that confronts you now, namely, how to pay your own obligations and also the debt inherited from your predecessors.

I have intentionally deferred calling you together until this seemingly late date in order that the facts and the mutter contained in this message could have no possible leverage at the polls on elec-tion day. The statements that I am about to make and the facts that I am about to lay before you are the result, not of your wrong doing but of the imperfect system of others, so that I deemed it unwise to pr judice the public against the members of this Council, who are innocent of bringing about this state of affaire.

I have been in touch and in communication with your Ways and Means Committer regarding our financial condition and we have, I think, arrived at the ways and means" of straightening o t this complicated state of affairs, and it now remains for you and the taxpayers of this city to say whether we have arrived at the right conclusions and if so to further our plans by taking action on my recommendation, which I will make to you later in this communication.

Before making any recommendation. however, I think it best that you and the taxpayers at large be thoroughly posted as to the facts regarding the condition of the city's finances. I will now give you a detailed statement of the exact condition of the financial department of this city as taken from a statement banded to me on the first day of November, 1898, and certified to by the city clerk as being correct.

The money which had been appropriated for these debts, and required for these sums un- closely upon as being unavailable to you, paid, had ben spent before you took the the resent Common Comedi. helm, and you have received as your legacy about $15,000 worth of debts for [ which you have made no provision and nowthe problem stares you in the bace, will you repudiate $15,000 worth of claims invalided you by the city clerk the statefor the next Board to adjust, or will you | ment of resources as they appeared upon come to the front, tell the taxpayers, the ledger and you had every reason to what you want, state the true facts, to believe from that statement that you them and ask them to relieve you and all | had over $1,700 more resources than nture Boards from a like dilemma? you actually had, you investigated the Evidently, when you raised the amount books and found to your setistaction of money to cossary for your expenses in that such was the case and ordered your this year's budget you overlooked the clerk, at various times, to credit to fact that what old debts you paid could various accounts the sum total of $1. not be carried over until next year, per- 733.68 to make the ledger accounts haps you did not know it, at any rate, such is the case. What your budget called for is just what you expected your I will say that upon investigation it expenses would be. You did not come , looks as though the interest on the on old dabas. Why should you? Yo certificates of indebtedness and any other Board has counted on them and subsequent bill that came in had be n the main reason is because the debts obserted to the severs and percentite your appropriations to the bottom notch, you expected to live within the sam total of your tunds, and you will. You did not calculate that you could not assume $15,000 worth of debts and then let the west council do the sume. "Yes possibly expected that your bank would carry you" as the bask of every other Board during the last few years has done, but it will not. You cannot get a d dar from your bank unless you have a balance there; they have served notice on me that they will not pay an over-drait. On the 15th day of March, 1895, the account of the treasurer was overdrawn, $7,907.56. In 1896 on the 21st day of April, the overdrait was $3.589,-26; on the 12th day of March, 1897, the amount was $3,881.10, and this year, 1898, on the 20th day of March, the amount was $3,658.63 on the wrong side of the ledger. This is what the banks have done for other Conneils. I do not clain that it is right, I claim that the bank should not pay an overdrait and consequently claim that no Council ought to ask it. This is the position that you are in; you must ask the people to take up this matter for you, which I believe every fair minded taxpayer will do, and not allow you, the Common Council of 1898, to repudiate several thousand dollars, through no fault of yours, until the next Board comes into power.

You have made a tax rate this year of $20 per thousand. The people appreciate that rate; but that $20 was intended for your expenses. That Jon't pay several thou-and dollars of debts from last year's Council, and the conditions this year are such that you cannot carry over $15,000 for the next Council to take care of wictout repudiating the same amount of debts on the last end of this year.

You have paid out of your funds to the Board of Education $5,335 50; you have paid also out of your tunds to the Board of Charities $4,290; total, Council fund for monies paid out for the $9,625.50, which was raised for and by last year's Board, and which should have been paid by them.

Last year's water frontage tax, amount ing to $1,324 72, has not been paid yet. The last Board received a good share of the money, and the money is gooe; but you did not get it, neither did the Water Commissioners.

You have paid to the bank, with which the last Board did business, $3.658.63 to make the city square with the bank on account of overdrafts. What does all this amount to? In dellars it amount to $14,608,85, and in this amount are not included the lot of little bills amounting to four or five hundred dollars, which came in too late for you to take care of in your budget. It also amounts to this, that if you keep up the credit of Middletown you have gut to have about $15,000 to pay the bills inherited from the former Board. You will, I think, remember, that it was July before some of last year's printing buls came in amounting to $127 29. This was too late for you to provide for them, but nevertheless, you paid them. I beg to refer you to the trial balance of the first day of November, 1898. which I gave to you complete early in my message, and which gives you the exact resources and habilities of the city, the figures of which are certified by the Clerk to be correct, and a copy of which each one of your number has undoubtedly received. From this balance you can see just how you are coming out; you will see that it you had not inherited a deficiency of fifteen thousand dollars, your finances would be in good shape. You owe balance on funds yet unused $16 297.18, and it would have given you $4 290 more cash if you had not paid the Board of Charities the last year's d-bt. You owe requisitions yet unpaid $12.275, and if you had not paid the Board of Education their debt of $5 335.50 against last year's Common Council, and had not paid the deficiency in the bank, you would have had about nine thousand dollars more cash on top of that ar the present time with which to do business. You owe last year's and this year's water irontage tax, which added to the other items I have mentioned, makes a total indebtedness of $31,143 66, and what have you with which to pay? Look at your statement and see. (ash. $10,257.72; lien book taxes, $567.73; lien bo k assessments, $4.485.59; city taxes, 1897, $1,932.67; sewer and pavement assessments not on hen book. $419.50; 1898 taxes, $8,249.04; sewers new and in process of construction. $3 437.30; individual accounts.$251.45; total $29,601. PROF. HOWE'S WAR-GRAPH.

Realistic Views of Battles in the Span-1sh-American War.

The Meriden (Conn.,) Daily Journal of Nov. 5, '98, in speaking of the entertainment given by Prof. Howe and his wargraph says: 'Never before has he had such a variety of pictures. Some of them are so thrillingly realistic that the audience broke out into the most enthusiastic applause. One picture shows the bombardment of Cabanas fortress by the New York. The vessel ateams briskly by the fortress, throwing shell after shell against it. The ship rocks and heaves with the concussion, the smoke pouring in volumes from her stacks and the shells flying from her sides. Shells may also be seen coming from the fortress but they fall in the water, showing not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. the poor marksmanship of the Spanish! genners. After the bomburdment great | ledo, Ohio. holes may be seen in the fort, showing the work of destruction. Another scene shows the bombardment of Matanzas by the New York and the Puritan. Shot after shot are thrown into the city and the awful possibilities of the modern warvessel are seen in the rapidity with which the shelis are sent on their way of destruction.

Mr. Howe and his war graph will be here on Thursday evening, Dec. 1, at the Casino, udder the auspines of the Y. P. S. C. E. of the First Congregational (hurch.

Senator Quay, of Pennsylvania, an nounces that he is a candidate for reelection and offers a reward of $10,000 for the conviction of any one guilty of bribery in connection with thesenatorial election. Mayor Mance's message to the Common Council at its special meeting, Friday tight, which is printed in full in another column, will be read with interest by every taypayer. The revelations which it makes of the muddled condition of the city's fluances will be a most unwelcome surprise to nearly every citizen, for very few outside of those in official life had any inkling that the city's affairs were in such a tangle. The Mayor makes it very plain that the present Council is in no wav at fault for it has kept within the appropriation. Responsibility rests on preceding Councils which spent more money than they sught to have done, and turned over to their successors a legacy of debt, while any such search would have been useless instead of money in the treasurer s hands, the city's resources have been tied up in accounts and assets of various kinds which were not immediately available. or what was worse, existed only as bookkeeper's fictions,-balances in wer and other accounts on which all the money due had been collected and from which there was no possibility of realizing anything.

If the Mayor had had the courage to take the people into his coundence before election and he made it plain, as he does, that responsibility to: existing conditions rests not with the present Council, ] but with its Republic in predicessors, it the Philippines, but that of China, and is certain that there would have been no | fluelly a Europe an war breaks out." tie vote on Mayor nor would the majorities for the Democratic Aldermenelect have been small, for the people would certainly have rebuked the Republican party for its mismanagement livery bern with its confents was of the city's aff ins

The Mayor's recommendations as to a way out of the difficulty or something akin thereto will probably have to be adopted. It the taxpayers vote the necessary appropriation the city treasury will be on its feet ag in, and when once the tangle is straightened out the charter should be so amended as to prevent the possibility of a other Republican Council apending a single doll a more for any purpose than the taxpavers have appropriated for its use

RUSSIA AND THE UNITED STATES

Has No Thought of Intervening in the Philippine Matter-Benjal of the Story That England Prevented European Intervention in Spain's Behalf.

Washington, Nov. 12-The Russian Ambassador, Count Cassiul, who is just back from an extended vacation, was een, to-day, at the Russian Embassy. where he talked most interestingly on international questions which have attracted attention lately.

Referring to the Philippines. Count Cassini said Russia, naturally, felt much interest in the status of these islands, owing to their proximity to the Eastern possessions of Russia. There was no warrant, however, he said, for reports coming from Paris that Russia had been appealed to by Spain with a view to limiting the claims of the United States in the Philippines. No such appeal has been made to Russia or to other foreign governments. Throughout the recent war Russia has maintained a most friendly attitude towards the United States and the Ambassador did not doubt that the firm friendship which has so long existed between Russia and the United States would continue.

In this connection Count Cassini took occasion to join assue with the prevailing public view that England showed conspicuous triendship for the United States during the critical state of the war with Spain, declining to join the great powers of Europe in a move for intervention. Count Cassini said no such action on the part of Gread Britain ever took place and that impeachment of continued triendliness otherwise was du to a misapprehension of the facts. At no time, he says, was there a purpose on the part of the Freat Dowers to intervene against the action of the United States, and so there was never occasion for such display of English friendship in checking the alleged designe of the great powers, and this widely circulated and generally accepted fable should not be accepted as part of record of the war..

MAY LEAD TO EUROPEAN WAR

A French Paper Thinks the Philippine Question Threatens Europe's Penerspain Secking Help in Europe and England an Am-rican A liance.

BY ASPOCIATED PREMS. Paris, Nov 12 -The Gaulois, after referring to the Philippine question as prosenting serious complications, says:

"The thing to be taced is no longer a renewal of the conflict between America and Spain, owing to a rupture or negotiations, but a general European conflict. The Fashoda incident was only the prologue to a big drama which will soon occupy the theatre of inter-European politics, and, reading the papers of Berin, London and Madrid, one feels something uncomfortable in the air.

"Spain knows that resistance or her part, isolated as she is, would have no chance of success, and she is looking for a friend in Europe. Before Fashoda, but now, England is anxious to satisfy her ambitions in the lar East.'

The Gaulois asserts that Great Britain is trying to bring about an offensive and detensive alliance with the United States, or which alliance, according to the Gaulois, Great Britain alone would reap the binefit. The Gaulois then says:

"Her programme is as follows: She will induce the United States to refuse any concession to Spain, and to refuse coaling s amons in the Philippines to Russia and Germany. A conflict breaks out. England, as America's ally, intervenes, which forces other powers having interests in the East to take up arms The question becomes no longer that or

The building was so suddenly enveloped in flames that they could not escape. Taylor got out but was frightfully burned.

CLOSE VOTING IN NASSAU COUNTY NEW YORK, Nov. 12-The vote in the new county of Nassau is so close that it will require the official count to determine who are elected county judge, distriet attorney aid other county officers. Unofficial returns indicate the election of Robert Seabury, Dem., county judge and James P. Niemann, Dem., by plaralties of less than a dozen votes each.

HELD FOR THE GRAND JURY

Scorge Patter and Sathias Matthews Charged With Amounting reward therman, the former's father-in-LAW-4 Town of Wallkill Constable Had a Hard Time Capturing Patter.

George Potter and Mathias Matthews. who were given a bearing before Justice Shaw, at Circleville, Friday, were held for the grand jury on a charge of assembleing Potter's Inther-in-law, Edward Sherman, of near Mount Hope.

Constable Travis had an exciting experieuce in capturing Potter. Edward Bull caught Matthews and took him away. Travis took Mrs. Potter and searched the house in quest of Potter, but she instated that he was not at home. Travis insisted that she knew where he was and on assuring her that he would take him, and that a term of imprisonment certainly awaited him, she said that she was afraid of him and that he was hiding in the woods back of the house, and would come in about midnight. He would tap on the window when she was to go and look out. Then he would tap on the siding of the house, and she would again open the door when he would come in.

Travis agreed to drive away and return later to await Potter's appearance. He drove to a neighboring farm house and returned with "Joe" Foley, of this city, and the two went to a bedroom off the dining room and waited. Foley fell a-leep and Travis was beginning to think that Potter wasn't coming, when there came a tapping on a window, Mrs. Potter got up and went to the door and opened it.

Travis gave Foley a good shaking and awoke him, and the two took position beside the hall closed door. A moment later the taps were given on the siding and Mrs. Potter again opened the door, and then retreated to the other side of the room. Potter mumbled something. when Travis pushed the door open and with one stride reached Potrer whose throat he seized with his left hand and pointing his revolver at his head com-

"Throw up your hands!" One hand drew back as if to strike the constable, but Foley's gun also stand dangerously close to Potter's face and he dropped two stons which he had in either hand and elevated his palms. Foley then put a pair of Capt. Veber's hippers on him and his man was secure.

THE NOVEMBER METEORS.

An Unusually Brilliant Mi-play Expected by Astronomers,

The earth has entered the meteoric zone, and a brilliant display of meteors may be expected to-night, and to-murrow and Monday nights.

The November meteors are unusually numerous and brilliant every thirty-three years. The last brilliant display was in 1866, and it has been noted that in the year preceding the time of greatest brilliancy meteors are very numerous and of unusual size, hence the interest astronomers are taking in this year's expected display.

The meteors will be seen in all parts of the heavens but are likely to be most numerous in the northern sky.

ELLENVILLE POST OFFICE ROBBED

Safe Blown Open and $900 in Stampa and $175 in Cash Token-Burgians Left Town on a Hand Car.

L. R. Benedict, the postmaster at Ellenville, was in town, this morning. He came over to borrow some stamps from Postmaster Dayton, for burglars blew open his safe, Friday night, and took all of his stock except three onecent stumps-about $900 worth, and $175 in cash.

The burglars, wito undoubtedly are the same ones who have been blowing up safes hereabouts during the past year, flected an entrance through a window in the rear of the post office. They dug out below the window casing and let the sash down sufficiently to get in. A hole was bored in the safe between the handle and the combination and powder exploded in it, tearing out the lock and throwing the door open.

The "swag" was gathered up without discovery, and leaving the brace behind the burglars repaired to the station, boarded a hand car and escaped.

The car was abandoned about halfway to Summitville. The burglars lifted it carefully from the track so as to run no risk of adding train wrecking to their other crimes.

A TALK ABOUT SEEDS

How Plant Life is Carried Sometimes from One End of the Earth to the Other.

A barren rock in midocean, an unfrequented road or a beap of sand never remains long without inhabitants in the shape of plants of some kind. Nature does not like unseemly spots, and soon contrives to throw a mantle of green over unsightly places.

Plants have no feet by which they may travel, yet they manage to spread over the world by taking advantage of the wandering propensities of animals, water and birds.

After a ramble through the woods and fields you have had to sit down by the roadside and pick the "stickers' out of your stockings.

The burdock, sandburr and martypia are sharp fellows. They provide their seeds with little books that eatch hold of anything woolly that chances to brush against them, and thus they steal rides to distant places -sometimes thousands of miles away Uncleaned wool and green hides are important artices of commerce, and are exchanged between countries on opposite sides of the world. Seeds clinging to the wool of sheep and cattle may thus be carried from the United States to Europe, or from Australia to the United States. Frequently in the vicinity of wool-cleaning works plants foreign to that part of the world may be found growing

When you pick the "stickers" out of your clothing or cut them out of Rover's hair you may east them on the ground, and if conditions are favorable new plants will grow from the seeds, and, without thinking about it, you thus belp nature to weave her summer garments. The daudelion thistle, milkweed and willow have a pleasant way of travel ing. Each little seed is provided with a little feathery sail, and is sometimes carried many miles by a stiff breeze.

The seeds of the maple, catalpa, ash and pine are provided with one or two wings instead of sails. They cannot ravel as far through the air as seeds provided with sails, but they may fall into a river, and there is no telling how far they may float or where they may stop, take root and grow. Seeds produced along rivers in the interior of continents have been found on the shores of islands in midocean

Some plants, like the orange, apple and pear, surround their seeds with an edible pulp, but these plants make a very wise provision by giving their seeds a bitter taste, so that the sweet pulp is eaten, and the bitter life germs are thrown away. Like the peach, many plants protect their seeds from being eaten by surrounding them with a hard shell

The seeds of the raspberry, blackberry and strawberry are so small that most of them do not digest when the fruit is eaten. Owing to this birds and animals assist nature very greatly by scattering seeds.

Wild geraniums and lady-slippers have a curious way. When the seeds are tipe the sides of the seed pod spring open and fling the seeds in all directions

In studying nature, although it is so full of life, we must not overlook the fact that life is the exception and death is the rule. Very, very few of the seeds produced ever grow into plants, and very few of the plants that spring up ever mature. Were this otherwise, in a short time the world would become an uninhabitable jungle.

Hill, of Zanto, Louisa Co., Va. "I had a chill that night that was the commencement of Malarial Pever, I called in the doctor, but did not get any relief.
